PENTALPHA CAPITAL, LLC
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2018

NOTE 1 - THE COMPANY

Pentalpha Capital, LLC (the "Company"), was formed in the State of New York, to act as a broker-dealer in the securities industry. It commenced operations on January 1, 1997 to, among other things, act as a conduit between buyer and seller in various financial trades, and to provide consulting and advisory services.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Investments

The Company determines the appropriate classification of securities at the time of purchase and reevaluates such designation as of each balance sheet date. Marketable equity securities not classified as trading or held to maturity are classified as available-for-sale. Available-for-sale securities are carried at fair value, with unrealized gains and losses reported as comprehensive income in the statement of changes in members' equity. Realized gains and losses and declines in value judged to be other-than-temporary on available-for-sale securities are included in comprehensive income. Interest and dividends on securities classified as available-for-sale are included in other income.

Income Taxes

The Company was formed as a Limited Liability Company and therefore will not pay corporation income taxes as the income is taxed directly to the members. The Company is required to file and does file tax returns with the Internal Revenue Service and other taxing authorities and has years open for examination by taxing authorities from 2015 through 2018.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally acceptable accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of certain assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent liabilities at the date of the financial statements. They also affect reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those amounts.

Fair Value

Pursuant to the provision described in ASC 820, Fair Value Measurement and Disclosures (formerly Statement of Financial Accounting Standards 157) the Company categorizes its financial instruments inputs into three of valuation techniques used to measure fair value into a three-level fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs of valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad levels. The fair value hierarchy gives the highest priority prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3). Valuation of assets and liabilities traded for less active dealer or broker markets that have significant observable inputs are classified as Level 2. Level 2 valuations are usually obtained from third party pricing service valuations for identical or similar assets. If the inputs are used to measure fair value fall within different levels of the hierarchy, the category level is based on the lowest priority level input that is significant to the fair value measurement of the instrument.

The Company's investments consist of marketable equity securities and fixed income securities, which are classified as Level I in the fair value hierarchy.

Pursuant to Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Company is required to maintain a minimum "net capital" as defined under such rule.

As of December 31, 2018, the Company's net capital was computed to be $ 279,671 exceeding its minimum requirements of $5,000 by $274,671.

NOTE 4 - CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentration of credit risk consist of cash accounts in banks which at times exceeded the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation limit of up to $250,000 per account.

The Company has a contributory 401K savings and Investment Plan covering all employees who meet length of service requirements.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Operating Member of Pentalpha Capital, LLC

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Report, in which (1) Pentalpha Capital, LLC identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. §15c3-3(k) under which Pentalpha Capital, LLC claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3: (2)(ii) (exemption provisions) and (2) Pentalpha Capital, LLC stated that Pentalpha Capital, LLC met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. Pentalpha Capital, LLC's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about Pentalpha Capital, LLC's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)((2)(ii)) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Operating Management
Pentalpha Capital, LLC

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of Pentalpha Capital, LLC for the year ended December 31, 2018, we considered its internal control structure including procedures for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control structure.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission, we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under rule 17 a-3(a)(11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons.
2. Recordation of differences by rule 17a-13.
3. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The Operating Management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining an internal control structure and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by Operating Management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control structure policies and procedures and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of an internal control structure and the practices and procedures are to provide Operating Management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with Operating Management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-15(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control structure or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or irregularities may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of the internal control structure would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control structure that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control structure elements does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or irregularities in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matter involving the internal control structure including procedures for safeguarding securities, that we consider to be material weakness as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objective referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2018, to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the use of the Operating Management, the Securities and Exchange Commission and other regulatory agencies which rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and should not be used for any other purpose.
